

Clinician

Interested in joining a growing, people-first team? Arete is looking for a compassionate clinician to round out our talented team.

Language: Bilingual (English and French)

Salary: $70,000 to $90,000*

Location: Remote home office in Canada

Position: Part-time or full-time, flexible schedule

Salary may vary based on location, skills, experience, designation and position type*

THE ROLE

As Arete's newest Clinician, you'll work with a team of colleagues from across Canada, providing in person or telehealth psychological counselling services to Arete assistance program users. In addition, you'll be an engaged participant in monthly supervisory conversations and/or peer consultations.

YOUR TALENTS

- Being a collaborative team player and ethical problem-solver
- Being warm, compassionate, and always professional
- Easily building strong interpersonal relationships
- High-quality written and oral communicator

OUR REQUIREMENTS

- Master's degree, in Counselling Psychology or a related field (i.e. Psychotherapist, etc.) with a minimum of three years of counselling experience and a Canadian Certified Counsellor designation.
- Maintain up-to-date registration and a minimum of $2 million in professional practice insurance.
- Be competent in the delivery of psychological/clinical counselling and general assessments to a broad range of clientele with various presenting issues using evidence-based therapies.
- Have an understanding or experience with disability management, return-to-work programs and third-party payers.
